New Safety and Security Procedures

The men of the congregation have put the following procedures in place to further the safety and security of each member.

For 6:00 AM worship service, all doors should be locked, with the exception of one front glass door in the front by 6:15.

All doors should be locked by 9:35 on Sunday mornings for classes, with the exception of two rear doors, and two front doors.

All doors should be locked by 10:35 on Sunday mornings for worship services, with the exception of one front glass door.

All doors should be locked on Wednesday evenings for Bible Study, and classes by 7:05, with the exception of one front glass door.

During our Gospel Meetings, devotionals, and any other such events, all doors are to be locked, with the exception of one front glass door, after a five minute allowance has expired for late arrivals.

If someone leaves the building during class, or worship service, they should be escorted by a Safety Team member.

Once worship service, Bible study, and or classes are over, two Safety Team members should dispatch themselves to the parking areas. One to the front parking area, and the other to the rear parking area.

In order to help those who used to park in the rear, or are running late, all parking areas are open to anyone, anywhere on property after 6:15, 9:35, and 10:35 on Sunday mornings, 5:05 on Sunday evenings, and 7:05 on Wednesday evenings to include handicap, and or visitor parking as formerly unlocked doors will now be locked sooner.

We can adjust these times, or change this policy as events occur, or as is deemed necessary, or appropriate in the future.

Hope is Our Anchor Dan Jenkins

Our world is so complex and is so rapidly changing. Televisions, phones, computers and other electronic devices become outdated so rapidly. We seemingly move from house to house and job to job far more frequently than before. Relationships and our roles in our family are so different as we rush through life. Is there nothing stable on which we can build our lives?

The answer is found in the closing verses of Hebrews chapter six. "This hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and steadfast and which enters the Presence behind the veil." God has given us hope and that hope is the anchor of our souls.

Hope is based on His immutable promise. The Bible clearly shows that we are saved by hope (Rom. 8:24) and this hope is the anchor of our souls. The writer of Hebrews ties hope to the promises of God. God's promises to Abraham enabled the patriarch to see what others could not see. God spoke the promise to Abraham and His word was enough. Yet God wanted Abraham to know how much he could trust Him. So God confirmed this with an oath (Heb. 6:13-16). The writer then says this same hope, our hope, is our anchor.

Hope is based on the promises which are secure. Hebrews say that the hope we have is sure and steadfast (Heb. 6:19). What could be more sure? The omniscient, omnipresent, omnipotent, eternal and Almighty One have given us His promise and He cannot lie (Tit. 1:2). Life is filled with uncertainty but the hope we have is far beyond all certainty. It is the basis of all of life's decision. It is truly the anchor of the soul!

Hope is based on the promises which are steadfast. His promise and our hope are both sure and steadfast (Heb. 6:19). There is no variance in the trustworthiness of our anchor. The life's philosophy of some is forced to change throughout their lives from day to day, but the faith we have is constant and unchanging. As our faith grows stronger, the anchor becomes more secure. It is always there. It is always secure. It is the anchor for our soul.

Hope is based on the life of Jesus and reaches from earth to heaven. Look again at Hebrews six. Jesus our forerunner has carried the anchor and has taken it into the very presence of God. No wonder it is an anchor sure and steadfast. The anchor line extends from our hearts, from our trials, and reaches into heaven. Hold on to that anchor. It will never move for it is anchored in eternity. God, hasten the day when we arrive at the place where we have anchored our lives! God, we thank You for the anchor You have given to us!
