

1

2

3

4

“Cleansing” is in the present tense, which denotes ongoing, continual action.

This fact builds our confidence and gives us hope and security.

The Cleansing Blood Of Christ
Is Continuing

5

His blood will cleanse us of “all” sin.

Any sin that a Christian can bring himself to repent of and confess is a sin that can and will be forgiven by Christ.

That promise is couched in the faithfulness and trustworthiness of Jesus, Himself.

The Cleansing Blood Of Christ
Is Complete

6

We must be washed in the “Blood of the Lamb” –
Revelation 1:5.

This cleansing takes place in baptism –
Romans 6:3-4, 17-18.

The Cleansing Blood Of Christ
Must Be Contacted

A close-up photograph of a rusty, weathered nail driven into a light-colored wooden surface. The nail is positioned horizontally, and there is a small amount of dried blood smeared on the wood around the point where the nail enters.

7

We do indeed possess good news today - Jesus Saves!
Will you avail yourself of that salvation?
If you have already, will you go out and tell others about it, that they too, might be saved?

Closing Thoughts

A close-up photograph of a rusty, weathered nail driven into a light-colored wooden surface. The nail is positioned horizontally, and there is a small amount of dried blood smeared on the wood around the point where the nail enters.

8