

A Perfect
Knowledge of Man
Psalm 139

1

Introductory Thoughts

Two of the most amazing questions that one can ask are found in Psalm 8:4 & Ruth 2:10.

The more that I learn about God, the more I too am compelled to wonder "Why does God Care about such a man as I?"

I believe we can find something of the answer recorded in Psalm 139

This wonderful little psalm is divided into 4 paragraphs of 6 verses each

2

The Evidence of Revelation. – Verse 17-18

5

The Psalmist David's Prayer – Vs 19-24

Many might ask, "Why does David make an abrupt change in this psalm?"

Why does David ask that God destroy the wicked?

David had contemplated and concluded that God knew him, was near him, and concerned about him; therefore,
David sought to ask something from God

Isn't this exactly what we do when we think of God's love for us?

The Psalmist David's Prayer – Vs 19-24

David Requested 2 Things from God

Asked for God to Get Rid of the Wicked. – Verses 19-22

David Asked for God to Get Rid of His Own Wickedness. – Verses 23-24

7

Concluding Thoughts

Who are you to God?

Do you really think God cares for you?

These are two very probing questions that require deep and searching thought.
