Introductory Thoughts

Imagine a world without the Bible.

Philip Bliss called Scripture wonderful words of life because they actually give what they promise - Life.

Philip P. Bliss was one of the most influential gospel hymn writers and singers of the 19th-century.

Beautiful Words – The Attractiveness of Scripture

The Bible is not a dull textbook - it is the most beautiful story ever told.

Psalm 19:10

Isaiah 52:7

When was the last time you opened your Bible just because you missed its voice?

4

Living Words –
The Power of Scripture

Hebrews 4:12.

John 6:63.

Ezekiel 37 – Dry bones live when the word is preached.

The Word became flesh - John 1:14.

These words do not merely describe life; they impart life through sanctification and resurrection.

5

Saving Words –
The Clarity and Sufficiency of Scripture

The gospel is simple enough for a child, yet profound enough to occupy theologians forever.

Romans 10:17

2 Timothy 3:15

There are many beautiful and religious words but only Christ's words can save.

Jesus does not drive us, He draws us - John 6:44.

6

Enduring Words – The Permanence of Scripture

Heaven and earth will pass away, but My words will not pass away - Matthew 24:35.

In a culture of trending opinions and 15-second videos, God's Word stands forever.

These words will be sung around the throne.

Concluding Thoughts

Peter's question and answer should be ours today.

Let the world hear wonderful words of life through you.

May these wonderful words of life echo in our hearts until we see the Word face to face.
