A friend of mine overheard a priceless conversation between a young boy and his mother at Walmart.

The story may be funny but my friend found a way to make some applications to the story.

As we go into a New Year this Thursday there are some things I want to give myself spiritually.

Introductory Thoughts

2

God provides all our needs –
Matthew 6:25-34.

Note the brethren of Macedonia –
2 Corinthians 8:1-5.

God promises to supply all our needs, but it is all we need, not a promise to go beyond what we need.

The promise is broad and yet it is restrictive.

Greater Faith in the Provisions of God

3

God is faithful and true in everything He does.
If He says, He does – Titus 1:1-2.

We often sing the song Standing on the Promises of God because we draw great hope from it.

Abraham and Sarah - Romans 4:19-21.

Greater Hope in the Promises of God

4

God's love for redeeming man through Jesus Christ is the most vital message in the Bible.

Everything revolves around God's love.

God is love and we love Him because He first loved us – 1 John 4:8, 19.

We struggle to see the scope of God's love – Ephesians 3:18.

Greater Love for the Person of God

5

Remember that His love endures forever – Psalm 118:1.

Look around and see the fullness of God's love – Psalm 119:64.

His love is better than life and surpasses knowledge – Psalm 63:3 – Romans 8:38-39.

Let's start the New Year with a better focus on a greater faith, hope and love –
1 Corinthians 13:13.

God has always and always will provide, give hope and love us.

Closing Remarks
