Introductory Thoughts

Yet her response is one of the most remarkable statements of faith in Scripture - Luke 1:38.

Mary teaches us that faith is not just trusting God's promises — it is trusting God's interruptions.

3

Faith Listens When God Interrupts – Verse 30

God's call comes in the middle of Mary's ordinary life.

She does not run, resist, or argue — she listens.

Faith begins with a heart open to God's unexpected voice.

God often speaks in moments that interrupt our plans.

4

Faith Trusts God When the Calling Is Costly

What will Mary face?

Yet she still says yes.

Faith accepts God's will even when it complicates your life.

5

Faith Surrenders to God's Word Above Our Own Plans - Verse 38b

Mary releases control.

She yields her future to God's direction.

She trusts God's word more than her own expectations.

Faith is not just believing God's word — it is submitting to it.

6

Faith Embraces God's Purpose Even When
It Is Unclear

Things Mary does not know.

But she knows who is calling her.

Faith walks into the unknown because God is already there.

7

Faith Opens the Door for God to Do the Impossible - Verse 38

Mary's "yes" leads to many things.

Her surrender becomes the doorway for God's greatest miracle.

God's greatest works often begin with someone's surrendered heart.

Closing Remarks

Mary's life was disrupted — but her faith transformed the disruption into destiny.

Faith that accepts God's disruption becomes faith that participates in God's redemption.
